About the Month of Tishrei

Tishrei is the first month of the Jewish year. It is a month full of celebration. Beginning with the High Holidays, we celebrate Rosh Hashana, Yom Kippur, Sukkot and Simchat Torah. Each of these holidays is filled with meaningful customs and traditions. Throughout this month, there are plenty of opportunities to connect, to be inspired and become more fulfilled and in tune with our true inner selves. Tishrei is considered the “head” of the year and the source from which we draw our strength and inspiration throughout the upcoming year.

Message from the Rabbi

Helpful Hints for How You Can Get the Most out of the High Holidays this Year

If you want to connect with others in person and not just through a computer screen on Zoom

1. Attend the Tashlich service in person at Heritage Park in Holyoke on the second day of Rosh Hashana, Wednesday, Sept 8

Tashlich is when we let go of our sins, shortcomings, and patterns that no longer work for us by symbolically casting them into a body of water. This year during Tashlich we are adding the blowing of the shofar to help strengthen us and point the way toward positive changes we would like to make in the coming year. Feel free to b.y.o.sh. (bring - and blow -- your own shofar) at this event. Then stay around to schmooze. As you arrive help yourself to wrapped challah, wine/ grape juice, wrapped apple slices. Tashlich is scheduled to start about 12:00 noon, which is approximately half an hour after the end of the second day Rosh Hashana service and study session.

2. Use SOZ's Shana Tova Together program to get together with others as a host or a guest for a High Holiday meal or invite a few people to your home "pot luck style". For example, invite a few people for dessert on Erev Rosh Hashana or lunch, dinner or dessert after services. If you would like to be a host or a guest, call or email Margie Bloom at (413) 433-1590 or marjorie.bloom@comcast.net. Leave your contact information, date, and number of people. Margie will do her best to make a match. Or extend an invitation yourself to watch a service, host a dessert or a pot luck.

3. Do a hybrid connection to SOZ services.

At least two SOZ households had others join them in person on their porch or in their home while zooming in together to SOZ S'lichot services last week. These mini-minyans provided a warm, intimate feeling of connection as well as being part of the larger community. Feel free to arrange something similar on your own for other High Holiday services.

If services help you mark the High Holidays and feel connected with the community, but you wonder if they could be shorter and wish you could just choose the parts you like the most

This year you can determine the time you spend at services by easily choosing the parts of the services that you like the most. We have included the service schedules for Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur in this newsletter. We will also email you the service schedules as we get closer to the holidays. This will enable you to zoom in to the parts that are most meaningful for you.

If you would like to learn how to make services in general as well as specific prayers be a richer and more meaningful experience for you

Does prayer work for you: always, sometimes, never? What helps you and what gets in the way? Is it easier for you to pray alone, spontaneously when the feeling moves you or to join others at a fixed time? These are some of the questions we will be exploring at the study session on Zoom on the second day of Rosh Hashana, Wednesday, September 8th, from 10 – 11:30 am.

We are calling this a study session rather than a class for several reasons. One, it will involve doing some of the High Holiday prayers, and not just talking about them. It will also include the blowing of the shofar. Two, it will involve all of us sharing experiences and best (and worst) practices so that we can learn from one another, rather than have any one person providing all the “right answers.”

IMPORTANT: There is “homework” to enable you and others to get the most out of this study session. Please do one (or more if you like) of the following:

- Write a prayer in advance that you are willing to share and discuss with others at the study session
- Choose a Jewish prayer that is especially meaningful or important to you from the High Holiday, Shabbat, or daily prayers, and be prepared to share it and discuss it with others
- Bring a poem or a song or a piece of art etc – from any source -- that is meaningful or inspiring to you in a spiritual or prayerful way to share and discuss.
- Write about and share what blocks you from doing any of the above, not just for this study session but also in your life.

We will use the haftarah for the first day of Rosh Hashana about Hannah’s pain and prayer as a starting point for our discussion.

If you would like to share any of your “homework” options that are written (such as the prayer you may have written or a prayer or poem or the words of a song that you have found somewhere and like), please email it by Sunday night, September 5th, to Rich Freyman at rjf@comdis.umass.edu with a cc to me at saulp@umass.edu. It can be in a Word document, a PDF, or simply in the text of an email. That will enable Rich to share your selection on the zoom screen, making it easier for everyone to follow and discuss.

Please Note: The “homework” is highly recommended to help make this study session successful and productive for you and for others, but it is not a requirement. You are welcome to participate whether or not you have done it.

If this is a time of year when you remember people, now deceased, who were important to you

Please join us for the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur morning, Thursday, September 16, at approximately 12:30 pm. To be sure not to miss it, you might want to join the service a bit earlier. We encourage you to gather in advance photographs of the people you wish to remember during Yizkor. When we come to the part during Yizkor for our personal remembrances, you will be invited to turn off your computer audio and video so that you can speak in turn, from your heart, privately, photo in hand, to each person you are remembering. After a few minutes, we will invite you to come back to the screen whenever you feel ready.

If you live far away from Holyoke or have rarely or never before attended SOZ services

You are still warmly welcome to join us on Zoom! We are just a computer click away. If you do not already receive zoom links via email from SOZ, contact Tara at office@sonsofzionholyoke.org or call (413) 534-3369 and leave your email address and phone number.

Best wishes for a Shana Tova u'Metuka – a good, sweet, renewing and uplifting New Year,

Rabbi Saul Perlmutter

Happy New Year!!!

After reciting the opening memorial prayers, each of us will have time to take our photos in hand one by one and speak (with our computer sound muted) to each person we are remembering. This way we can have moments alone with those who are no longer with us to express words of appreciation, love, regret, forgiveness – whatever comes to our minds and hearts. We will conclude the Yizkor service together with the Mourner's Kaddish.

7:40 – 7:50 pm Havdalah -- a short, sweet goodbye with candlelight, wine, and spices.

Help Restore the SOZ Garden

SOZ used to have a thriving garden of flowers and vegetables in the yard. It is time to bring that back!

A small group of dedicated volunteers has started clearing the vines and tangles from along the perimeters of the SOZ yard. The plan is to continue the work and to hire professionals with the right equipment to complete the job.

We need help raising the funds to make this vision a reality.

Please help by contributing whatever you are able to the SOZ Garden Fund.

Contributions can be mailed to SOZ: 378 Maple Street

SOZ BOOK CLUB MEETING

Sunday, September 26th at 10:30am

This epic tale about the effects of the Russian Revolution and its aftermath on a bourgeois family was not published in the Soviet Union until 1987. One of the results of its publication in the West was Pasternak's complete rejection by Soviet authorities; when he was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1958 he was compelled to decline it. The book quickly became an international best-seller.

Dr. Yury Zhivago, Pasternak's alter ego, is a poet, philosopher, and physician whose life is disrupted by the war and by his love for Lara, the wife of a revolutionary. His artistic nature makes him vulnerable to the brutality and harshness of the Bolsheviks. The poems he writes constitute some of the most beautiful writing featured in the novel.

From the Cemetery Chair-

A big THANK YOU to Mark Cohen of South Hadley who has volunteered to clean gravestones at our cemetery. He also wants to let everyone know that placing stones on the top of graves actually causes staining even down the front and sides. Shells or glass are okay but the iron in rocks leaches out with the rain.

Tikkun Olam Opportunities

Project Isaiah: Food Drive Benefitting Margaret's Pantry

Is not this the fast I (God) want?

To free people from all which cruelly oppresses them, to let the oppressed go free, to break every chain, to share your food with the hungry, to take the homeless into your home. Clothe the naked when you see him. Do not ignore a needy relative. Then light will break forth like the dawn, and your wounds will soon be healed.

— Isaiah 58:6-7, From the Haftarah for Yom Kippur morning Adapted from The Mahzor, Rabbinical Assembly, and Tanakh, Jewish Publication Society

Once again Sons of Zion will be taking a food collection for Margaret's Pantry, an emergency food pantry in Holyoke. Our initial effort last year was hugely successful and very appreciated. Let's make this an even better year.

During the High Holy Days, it is customary to help those in need. The Tikkun Olam Committee asks that you participate in this effort by filling a bag with non-perishable food items and bringing it back by September 30, 2021. Watch for more information about Project Isaiah.

You can also contribute to this important cause by sending financial donations, which they will use to make purchases of the needed items. Checks can be made out to Margaret's Pantry and sent to:
