About the Month of Nissan

Nissan, the first month on the Jewish calendar (according to the Torah), coincides with March-April on the secular calendar. The Torah calls it chodesh ha-aviv—the month of spring, as it marks the beginning of the spring months. It is in this month that we celebrate the eight-day holiday of Passover, from the 15th through the 22nd of Nissan. It commemorates the Jewish people's miraculous redemption from slavery in Egypt, and the birth of the Jewish nation.

A Message from the Rabbi

From Purim to Pesach: Overcoming Challenges, Facing New Ones

"Great Performance!" "Well, that was a hoot, wasn't it?" "A fun experience!" "I thought the Purim celebration was great."

These actual reactions typify the wonderful response to this year's SOZ Purim shpiel. "To Tell the Truth," was the brainchild of Rich Freyman's wry creativity and inclusive leadership. Rich brought together a spirited cast and crew and an appreciative audience, bringing smiles to our faces and lifting our spirits.

We celebrated, once again, Esther's courage and Mordechai's commitment. Once again, we overcame the external challenge of bigotry that threatened to destroy a Jewish community.

A year ago, Purim was pretty much the last time we got together inside our building at 378 Maple Street. For a whole year now, our SOZ community has faced a different kind of pernicious challenge - the COVID pandemic -- that threatened to isolate us and weaken our connections with one another.

Instead, this Purim we demonstrated our resilience as a community. Over the course of this difficult year, we have figured out how to use Zoom to do services that have brought us closer. More people are attending our Shabbat service, including people new to SOZ. Even our weekday service, which pre-COVID had been struggling to get a minyan quorum, now consistently has a minyan every Wednesday afternoon.

Instead of hunkering down, we are creating new nurturing, fun, and supportive ways to be together. We have figured out how to cook together on zoom. We have initiated regular schmooze sessions on Zoom. We now have a prayer study group that meets on Zoom. In addition to these new activities, our Board and committees continue to function, the book group continues to read and discuss, we continue to support efforts to feed the hungry in our community, and the newsletter and website continue to keep us informed about these and other happenings. Calls are being made to keep in touch with congregants who don't Zoom.

This year when the Purim shpiel concluded and we had sung our final triumphant song, no one in the large crowd wanted to leave the screen. The program was over, but people stayed on. Spontaneously we schmoozed, we laughed. New participants started to introduce themselves, soon morphing into everyone joining in and saying hello to one another.

The camaraderie, the caring, the pure pleasure of that moment was precious and palpable. Without having to say it in so many words, I think we were all experiencing that we had not only beaten Haman; we also are emerging from COVID as an even stronger and more cohesive community. Instead of diminishing, we are miraculously growing and becoming even closer.

In the course of our post-shpiel schmoozing, one person happened to mention that Purim was the date of her father's yahrzeit (the anniversary of her father's death). A few moments later, we all supported her in staying so that she could recite the kaddish for her father. This person was in Wisconsin. It didn't matter. It was just one more beautiful example of how we have become a community that supports one another.

The camaraderie, the caring, the pure pleasure of that moment was precious and palpable. Without having to say it in so many words, I think we were all experiencing that we had not only beaten Haman; we also are emerging from COVID as an even stronger and more cohesive community. Instead of diminishing, we are miraculously growing and becoming even closer.

This Purim was a wonderful reminder of what a blessing it is to be part of this SOZ community.

We are now looking ahead to Pesach. A committee is already planning a congregational seder for the second night of Passover, Sunday night, March 28.

Our tradition charges us on Passover to "tell your child on that day, 'It is because of what God did for me when I went free from Egypt.'" Exodus 13:8 From the youngest child who asks the Four Questions to the four children who are described in the Haggadah, a key focus of Passover is to tell the story to the next generation of our redemption from slavery to freedom.

For us at SOZ, extending the wonderful, supportive, and warm community that we experienced this Purim to the next generation is our next major challenge - not just for Passover, but for the future of our congregation and the future of Jewish life as a whole in Holyoke. Put differently, we parents and grandparents of Zion need to share our beautiful tradition with the next generation for there to be Children of Zion in the future.

How can we do this? Our President, Joan Rosner, and I recently met with Rabbi Yafa Chase, Director of Western Massachusetts Programs for the Harold Grinspoon Foundation (HGF). We learned that SOZ can apply for a very generous Family Education Grant from HGF. This would enable us to hire an educator to support Jewish experiential education for young families. So the funding is there potentially. All we need now is to find a talented educator/coordinator and families that want a meaningful Jewish connection for their children.

You can help make this happen.

Do you know any families with Jewish children in the Holyoke area -- including South Hadley, Easthampton, Chicopee, Granby? If so, please tell Joan Rosner about them.

If you are in one of those families, please contact Joan Rosner to let her know that you would like to hear more about this possibility.

Do you know a Jewish educator who is great with children and families who could help organize a program with and for them? If so, please tell Joan about them.

Would you like to help Joan put this initiative together? You know what to do...call Joan.

Joan can be reached by phone at 413 535-8679 or by email at joanrosner@comcast.net.

In keeping with the spirit and message of Passover to engage the next generation, any connections you can help make now could be the start of a long-term game changer for Jewish life in the Holyoke area. Please add this to your personal list of Passover preparations. Thank you.

I'm looking forward to joining you for our second night SOZ Zoom seder.

With thanks and warm wishes for a sweet and liberating Passover for you and for future generations of Jewish life in Holyoke,

Rabbi Saul Perlmutter

CHESED SCHMOOZE

March 8th and 22nd @ 7PM via Zoom

As the winter days get longer and so many of us are at home and limiting outside interactions, the Chesed Committee would like to invite you to an occasional online Schmooze.

Are you looking to have more social interaction?

Are you feeling exhausted by the length of time that the COVID crisis has lasted?

Are you looking for a chance to hear from others how they are managing in these times?
Or would you just like to get together with others in the SOZ family to connect and spend some time together?

If any of these things is of interest then join us on our inaugural Schmooze. There is no agenda other than a desire to connect with others.

PLEASE RSVP:

Please go to our website and register if you have not attended an SOZ Schmooze before.

The Zoom link will be sent out at 6pm on the night of the event.

SOZ BOOK CLUB MEETING

Sunday, March 21st at 10:30am

Ariella Bannon has no choice. She must put her precious children Liesl and Erich on that train or allow them to become prey for the Nazis.

Berlin 1939.

When her husband doesn't come home one day, Ariella realizes that the only way she can ensure her Jewish children's safety is to avail of the Kindertransport, but can she bear to let them go?

A thousand miles away, Elizabeth Klein has closed herself off from the world. Losing her husband on the last day of the Great War and her child months later, she cannot, will not, love again. It hurts too much.

But she is all Liesl and Erich Bannon have.

Thrown together in the wild countryside of Northern Ireland, Elizabeth and the Bannon children discover that life in the country is anything but tranquil. Danger and intrigue lurk everywhere, and some people are not what they seem.

From the streets of wartime Berlin, to the bombed out city of Liverpool, and finally resting in the lush valleys of the Ards Peninsula, The Star and the Shamrock from USA Today best-selling author Jean Grainger is a pause resister.

Project Isaiah: Fundraiser Benefitting Margaret's Pantry

Is not this the fast I (God) want?

To free people from all which cruelly oppresses them, to let the oppressed go free, to break every chain, to share your food with the hungry, to take the homeless into your home. Clothe the naked when you see them. Do not ignore a needy relative. Then light will break forth like the dawn, and your wounds will soon be healed.

— Isaiah 58:6-7, From the Haftarah for Yom Kippur morning Adapted from The Mahzor, Rabbinical Assembly, and Tanakh, Jewish Publication Society

Once again, Congregation Sons of Zion will sponsor a collection to benefit Margaret's Pantry, a full-service food pantry that provides food to residents of the greater Holyoke area. The need this year is greater than ever. Due to the Pandemic Crisis, Margaret's Pantry is requesting financial donations which they will use to make purchases of needed items.

If you would like to contribute to this important cause you can make checks out to Margaret's Pantry and send them to:

**Please note: Congregation Sons of Zion on your check.*

Thank you for your participation in this important effort.
