About the Month of Iyar

Every single day of the month is included in the Sefirat HaOmer, the mitzvah of counting each of the 49 days between Passover and Shavuot. Sefirat HaOmer is a period of introspection and self-refinement, as we prepare ourselves to receive the Torah anew on Shavuot. Each day of Iyar represents another step in this spiritual journey toward Sinai.

Rabbi's Message

Lights Shine from SOZ

I'd like to share some recent good news about two of our members who are having a positive Jewish impact on the wider community.

The first is Bonnie Gruszecki. Bonnie not only sings the prayers beautifully as she often helps lead Shabbat morning services; she also writes new ones. In "It's not about letting go," for example, Bonnie describes how remembering the loss of departed loved ones has shaped her life. The first time she read this prayer/meditation in front of others was at our Yom Kippur services at SOZ. I was so moved by it that I have, with permission, used it at other occasions.

"It's not about letting go" is now available to a much wider audience as it has been selected by a much-utilized online resource known as Ritualwell and posted in their section on Mourning and Bereavement. Ritualwell, which is described as "the most extensive online resource curating original, progressive Jewish rituals" can be accessed at ritualwell.org. This link <https://ritualwell.org/ritual/its-not-about-letting-go/> will connect you directly.

Bonnie also wrote another piece that she read publicly for the first time at SOZ Yom Kippur services, called "Placing My Hand on My Heart." Instead of the custom of hitting our hearts as a sign of regret as we recite the list of our sins/failures, placing her hand on her heart was a more gentle gesture for Bonnie to "see myself as I truly am when I have missed the mark, stumbled, fumbled..." Ritualwell has chosen this poem of Bonnie's to post in their Yom Kippur/compassion/heart offerings. This link will get you there: <https://ritualwell.org/ritual/placing-my-hand-on-my-heart/>

As many of us have already heard from SOZ emails, the creative effort of another of our talented members, Deb Levine, is bearing fruit at the D'Armour Museum of Fine Arts in Springfield. As a docent at the museum and with encouragement from SOZ, Deb recently asked about the possibility of her developing and leading a guided tour that would focus on Jewish artists represented in the museum's collection and on artists with a significant connection to Jewish themes or history. The museum enthusiastically agreed, and Deb led her first and the museum's first-ever (as far as we know) Jewish artists tour on Sunday, April 23.

Deb offered her first tour to SOZ, and we responded with an over-capacity registration. She did a masterful job! She made the paintings come alive for us, with wonderful explanations about their place in art history and the artists' Jewish historical context. I learned a lot about artists who were unknown to me like Lionel Feininger, Paul T. Frankel, and Helen Frankenthaler, as well as others like Leonard Baskin who were more familiar. Did you know that Camille Pissarro was Jewish and that his full name was actually Jacob Abraham Camille Pissarro? Either did I, but this was just one of the many interesting facts that Deb brought to life for us. If you missed Deb's tour, don't worry; the museum is likely to offer it on an ongoing basis.

Mazal tov to Deb and to Bonnie!!! It's great to see our members bringing their Jewish creativity to us and to the wider community.

President's Message

This has been a busy month here at Sons of Zion. We are progressing with the sale of our building to The Lighthouse School and packing up 119 years of history. On April 30th, a wonderful crew of volunteers accomplished a lot in a few hours. Our thanks to Andrea Fox, Deborah Levine, David Scher, Gellya Shulman, Jayne Pearl, Kathy Black, and Nitza Seaver. First to arrive and almost last to leave were Ira Laby, age 90 and octogenarian Dr. Alfred Hutt who inspired us all! And thank you to Rabbi Saul Perlmutter who is helping us decide what to do with the 100s of books that we have obtained over so many years.

On April 23rd, our member Deborah Levine who is a docent at the D'Amour Museum of Fine Arts in Springfield led a group of us on a tour of Jewish artists on display there. Her research and knowledge were very interesting and educational. The museum will even have her give this tour again because it was so well done.

There are many items in our synagogue building that are still of value, but we have no use for when we move so we will be offering them to members of our community. The open house will be in early June-date to be announced. Donations to our Future Home Fund will be welcome of course.

There are several activities coming up in May and June and we hope to see you in person or on Zoom.

Stay safe and well!

SOZ BOOK CLUB MEETING

Sunday, June 4th at 10:30 am

The Only Woman in the Room* by Marie Benedict

Bestselling author Marie Benedict reveals the story of a brilliant woman scientist only remembered for her beauty.

Her beauty almost certainly saved her from the rising Nazi party and led to marriage with an Austrian arms dealer. Underestimated in everything else, she overheard the Third Reich's plans while at her husband's side and understood more than anyone would guess. She devised a plan to flee in disguise from their castle, and the whirlwind escape landed her in Hollywood. She became Hedy Lamarr, screen star.

But she kept a secret more shocking than her heritage or her marriage: she was a scientist. And she had an idea that might help the country fight the Nazis and revolutionize modern communication...if anyone would listen to her.

A powerful book based on the incredible true story of the glamour icon and scientist, The Only Woman in the Room is a masterpiece that celebrates the many women in science that history has overlooked.

That’s right, we’re planning a day of packing..again. It will be light work - packing books and papers, cleaning out filing cabinets, etc.

I know it’s Mother’s Day but if you’ll be around and can give us a couple of hours it will be greatly appreciated! Many hands make light work. It was amazing how much we accomplished last time.

A light breakfast, drinks and snacks will be provided.

New Member Spotlight: Randi Stein

This photo was taken by a member of SOZ during the opening of an art exhibition at the JCC in Springfield two years ago (hence the mask!). The collage behind her was recently exhibited at the Hebrew College centennial show. Randi's primary occupation these days is art-making. When she is not making art, she is writing (a memoir in the making), gardening, reading (her latest preoccupation are the Hebrew letters, and the mystical stories of Creation), and zooming with her three grown children— Mikhal (in California), Maya (in Maine), and Adam (in transition from Colorado). Randi is a dance/movement therapist and has worked for many years as a remedial educator in several Waldorf Schools in New England, supporting children with learning challenges with therapeutic movement activities. Randi completed the Aleph training to be a lay service leader and has led Shabbat and weekday ma'ariv services at the Jewish Community of Amherst. She has also mentored adults in preparation for their B'nei Mitzvah and is now teaching two young adults Hebrew and Torah trope. Randi is delighted and grateful that zoom access put her in touch with the SOZ community, which she has experienced as "incredibly warm and welcoming".
