Elul

Elul is the 12th and final month in the Jewish calendar. It is a month that connects the past year with the coming year—a time when we reflect on where we stand and where we should be going. It is called “the month of repentance,” “the month of mercy” and “the month of forgiveness.”

President's Message

As we enter another season of High Holiday activities, I am thankful for the continued support of our members. The past year was an important one for our congregation, with the sale of the building at 378 Maple St. finally accomplished in early November.

We are now focused on the future of our cemetery and the synagogue.

The Gift of the Heart letters went out a bit later because we were focused on updating our bylaws, as required by the state. Hopefully, now that the summer vacation season is winding down, you will continue to send us your generous support.

The recent restoration of the chapel and the landscaping there were accomplished with funds from the synagogue and donations from a few members.

A special thank you to Dr. Stephen Levine and Ron Laby, who helped accomplish much of the work. The Genizah burial of hundreds of holy books no longer in use from our old synagogue was a truly special event. Thank you to Rabbi Marc Rudolph for a very meaningful service and to Joe Pasternak from Boucher-O'Brien Funeral Home in Easthampton for providing us with a proper grave for all these books. Thanks also to Dr. Steve Levine, who handled much of the planning, and to Ron Laby for all his help.

Again this year, we will hold a very beautiful S'lichot service led by Rabbi Saul Perlmutter at the home of Michael and Joan Rosner. Our first-day Rosh Hashanah service in our lovely chapel at 380 Dwight St. will be led by our dear Dr. Max Chorowski and his lovely and talented daughter, Amanda. We will step outside afterward and observe Tashlich in our backyard along the canal. Out of care for the birds, we now use birdseed instead of bread. The full High Holiday schedule is included below in the newsletter.

We have a number of interesting activities planned for the next few months, thanks to the inspiration of Jayne Pearl and the rest of the activities committee.

I look forward to seeing you soon!

Warm regards,

Joanne Saltman
President, Congregation Sons of Zion
